MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
VIA : Director, National Foreign Assessment Center
FROM : Coordinator for Academic Relations and External Analytical Support
SUBJECT : DCI Discussion/Dinner on Strategic Warning

1. Action requested: To set a date for the next DCI Discussion/Dinner.

2. The subject of Strategic Warning is the next on my DCI dinner list. Professor Klaus Knorr of Princeton, our outside authority on this subject, was here on Friday, 4 November, for discussions with Mr. Bowie, [redacted] and myself. Knorr and [redacted] will remain in communication on the subject. My reading is that the two of them can point up for us a stimulating discussion on this difficult subject. We do need to have a date set, however.

3. The first question is whether you wish to schedule the dinner before the first of the year. Assuming an interval of approximately six weeks between the dinners, the date for the next one should be around the middle of December. Knorr's teaching schedule allows him to participate on any of the following dates: December 12, 14, 15, 21, and 23. The week before Christmas might prove difficult for some of our people with holiday leave plans. On the other hand, if we postpone until after Christmas it will have to be after mid-January as Knorr [redacted]

4. Recommendations:

a. That one of the following dates be chosen for the dinner.

Monday, December 12 (next day is Pres Brief) DK
Wednesday, December 14
Thursday, December 15 [redacted]
